Forum Neues Musiktheater of Staatsoper Stuttgart presents: Biggest European Max/MSP/Jitter-Workshop

In the last ten years, Max/MSP/Jitter has developed into one of the leading standard software applications for interactive media and live performances.

Max MSP Jitter is highly versatile, and is suitable for concerts, theatre, dance, artistic installations, performance art, DJ-ing and VJ-ing. The software employs an object-based programming language which allows the user to design and program a wide range of functions, algorithms and control processes in line with their artistic and aesthetic requirements.

Forum Neues Musiktheater workshop is aimed at Max MSP users with a basic or intermediate understanding of the application, professionals involved in music, composition, theatre, video art and media art, as well as any artists/users who perform live.
